

Bypass Restrictions by State

If a driver receives a green light, and any of the following conditions apply, the driver must pull into the weigh station.

Alabama

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Agricultural loads

Bulk fuel loads

Livestock loads

Arizona

Oversize/Overweight (unless Class E permit)

Fuel import loads

Placarded Hazmat and Hazwaste loads

Arkansas

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Placarded Hazmat and Hazwaste loads

California

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Agricultural loads – only pull in if directed by enforcement facility signs

Vehicles using multiple bypass systems: If you receive a red light for either system, you are not permitted to bypass.

Colorado

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads) except LCVs operating with an annual permit and receive a green light

Temporary permit to haul hazardous waste/materials

Delaware

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Florida

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Florida Agricultural Inspection Facilities

Approved Carriers: Agricultural loads

Non-Approved Carriers: ANY LOAD

Illinois

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Indiana

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Iowa

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Kansas

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads) except LCVs operating with a KTA permit – South Haven Site only

Kentucky

Oversize/Overweight Single Trip Permits

Louisiana

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Michigan

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Mississippi

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Private carriers transporting taxable petroleum products

Missouri

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Montana

Overweight (even permitted loads)

Oversize (except when operating on a valid over-dimensional permit with any of the following conditions along with a green light)

Overwidth at 10 feet or less

Overheight at 15 feet 6 inches or less

Overlength with a term 95 feet doubles permit

Nebraska

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Vehicles using multiple bypass systems: If you receive a red light for either system, you are not permitted to bypass.

New Mexico

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

North Carolina

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

North Dakota

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Ohio

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Oklahoma

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

South Carolina

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Tennessee

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Texas

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Utah

Non-Divisible Oversize/Overweight Loads

Divisible Oversize/Overweight (without a permit)

Virginia

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

West Virginia

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Unlicensed Hazmat

Wisconsin

Oversize/overweight (even permitted loads) except RS permitted trucks weighing up to 98,000 lbs. on 6 axles at the Superior NB and SB SWEF only

Wyoming

Oversize/Overweight (even permitted loads)

Livestock loads